RE: International Heritage, Inc.
Case No: 98-02675-5-ATS
Chapter 7

Claim No: 003341
Amount: $49,771.00

Dear People:

I am writing asking for further consideration of lost wages from International Heritage Incorporated. I will itemize this for you. $23,271 in lost weekly wages; $19,000 unpaid wages for Pin Rank---one month of Presidential Director @$1500 and seven months of Ambassador @$2500; $7,500 unpaid Flex Plan wages for consumables. Plus, I had purchased products which I did not receive.

However, I realize that I do not have written proof of most of these lost wages, but put them on my list as they compiled. Therefore I am requesting the $4,300 of wages earned within 90 days before the bankruptcy filing. I am submitting copies of my 1998 calendar as proof for months September and October which show some of my earnings, more than the allowed $4,300. Please note the Friday columns. Week 36, or September 4th shows G (Gary 01) which made $2,500; week 40, or October 2nd, 01-G (Gary) $2,500; week 42 G (Gary 01) $2,500. I actually made more, but the way it is written I can understand it, but you cannot. I swear that this calendar is authentic and has been kept intact since September of 1998. Information was collected from IDCC, our International Heritage Incorporated communication system. We were able to listen to how much our earnings were for each center we had week by week. I did this and recorded it on my calendar.

Thank you for your time,

Gary Bisbey
